

Statutory Instrument 340 of 1986.

[ACT 14/75

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Natural Resources and Tourism, in terms of section 116 of the Parks and Wild Life Act, 1975, has made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 1986 (No. 1).

2. Section 28 of the Parks and Wild Life (General) Regulations, 1981, published in Statutory Instrument 900 of 1981 (hereinafter called "the principal regulations"), is amended in subsection (1) by the insertion after paragraph (b) of the following paragraph—

"or

(c) in accordance with any rules or arrangements displayed in terms of section 41."

3. Section 41 of the principal regulations is amended—

(a) in subsection (1) by the deletion of "arrangements" and the substitution of "rules and arrangements";

(b) in subsection (2) by the deletion of "arrangement" wherever it occurs and the substitution of "rule or arrangement".

4. Section 44 of the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

Provision of assistance

"44. (1) If an officer or employee has reason to believe that—

(a) any person within the Parks and Wild Life Estate is lost or in need of assistance; or

(b) any property within the Parks and Wild Life Estate is lost or endangered;

the officer or employee may take whatever measures he considers necessary to search for or assist that person or search for or safeguard that property, as the case may be.

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

(2) Where an officer or employee has taken any measures in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) any person who has been searched for or assisted; or
- (b) the owner of any property that has been searched for or safeguarded;

as the case may be, shall pay the appropriate fee for the search, assistance or safeguarding, as the case may be, unless the director waives the fee."

5. Section 52 of the principal regulations is amended—

(a) in the definition of "dealer" by the insertion after paragraph (a) of the following paragraph—

"(a1) a trophy retailer; or";

7. Section 55 of the principal regulations is amended—

(a) in subsection (2) by the insertion after “qualified” of “and otherwise suitable”;

(b) by the repeal of subsection (3) and the substitution of the following subsections—

“(3) An applicant shall not be qualified for the issue of a licence if—

(a) he does not, in the opinion of the Director, possess sufficient skill or knowledge to be issued with the licence concerned; or

(b) he is not ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe;

Provided that the Minister may, on the application of the person concerned, by notice in writing, declare that any person who is not ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe is nevertheless qualified for the issue of a licence.

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

(4) After taking the steps referred to in subsection (2), the Director, shall refuse to issue the licence applied for—

- (a) if he is satisfied that the applicant is not qualified to be issued with it;
- (b) if he considers that the applicant is otherwise unsuitable to be issued with it; and in any other case shall issue to the applicant a numbered professional hunter's licence, learner professional hunter's licence or professional guide's licence, as the case may be."

8. The principal regulations are amended by the insertion after section 55 of the following section—

Period of validity of licences

"55A. Every professional hunter's licence, learner professional hunter's licence and professional guide's licence shall, unless earlier cancelled, expire on the 31st December of the year on which it was issued."

9. The principal regulations are amended by the insertion after section 56 of the following sections—

Payment of services rendered by holders of licences to non-residents

"56A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), every holder of a professional hunter's licence, learner professional hunter's licence, or professional guide's licence who has conducted a person who is not ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe on a hunting, photographic or viewing safari shall ensure that all payments made to him by that person—

- (a) are made in foreign currency in the form of cheques, bills, drafts or cash; and
- (b) are deposited with a registered commercial bank in Zimbabwe within seven days after—
 - (i) the conclusion of the safari; or

(ii) the final departure of that person from any premises owned, occupied or used by the holder of licence:

whichever is the earlier.

(2) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not apply to any holder of a licence to the extent that he has been exempted from those provisions by a registered bank in Zimbabwe before he conducted the safari concerned.

Register of hunting safaris

56B. (1) Every person who, for reward, conducts any other person who is not ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe on a hunting safari shall—

- (a) immediately upon the conclusion of the safari, complete and sign a return in triplicate in the form set out in the Eleventh Schedule, and ensure that the person who is not ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe also signs the return; and
- (b) within fourteen days thereafter, send the original copy of the completed form to the Director at the address indicated on the form.

(2) A person who is required to complete a return in terms of subsection (1) shall retain one copy of the return for not less than three years thereafter and make it available for inspection if required to do so in terms of section 82.

(3) If a copy of a return that is required to be retained in terms of subsection (2) is lost, stolen or destroyed, the person who was required to retain it shall notify the Director within fourteen days after he became aware of such loss, theft or destruction."

10. Section 62 of the principal regulations is repeated and the following is substituted—

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

Prohibition of unlicensed manufacture of or dealing in trophies and ivory

“62. (1) Subject to subsection (2)—

- (a) no person shall process, carve, embellish or otherwise manufacture any trophy, other than ivory, for sale or reward unless he is authorized to do so by a trophy dealer's licence issued in terms of section 63;
 - (b) no person, whether as an agent or employee or in any other capacity, shall process, carve embellish or otherwise manufacture ivory, whether for sale or reward or otherwise, unless he is authorized to do so by an ivory manufacturer's licence issued to him personally in terms of section 63;
 - (c) no person shall employ, hire, engage or procure any other person to process, carve, embellish or otherwise manufacture any trophy unless he has satisfied himself that the other person is entitled to do so by a trophy dealer's licence or an ivory manufacturer's licence, as the case may be, issued in terms of section 63;
 - (d) no person shall carry on the business of buying, selling, importing or exporting any trophy, other than raw ivory, unless he is authorized to do so by a trophy dealer's licence or a trophy retailer's licence, as may be appropriate, issued in terms of section 63;
 - (e) no person shall carry on the business of buying, selling, importing or exporting raw ivory unless he is authorized to do so by an ivory dealer's licence issued in terms of section 63;
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply—
- (a) in respect of any manufacture or sale authorized by a permit issued in terms of section 30, 37 or 65 of the Act; or
 - (b) subject to the terms and conditions of such exemption, to any person who has been granted a written exemption by the Minister from all or any of the provisions of subsection (1).”

Exemptions

“79. (1) The provisions of sections 73, 76C and subsection (1) of section 78 shall not apply in respect of the acquisition or possession of ivory or horn by any museum or scientific or educational institution, where such ivory or horn is bona fide acquired or possessed for the purposes of the museum or for scientific or educational purposes.

(2) The provisions of section 76C shall not apply in respect of the acquisition or possession of—

- (a) any unregistered ivory by any person prior to his producing the ivory to a specified officer, within the time limits specified in section 73, for registration in terms of that section; or
- (b) any marked ivory that has been lawfully imported into Zimbabwe after being manufactured outside Zimbabwe; or
- (c) any marked ivory that was manufactured prior to the date of commencement of the Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 1986 (No. 1).

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

(3) In any prosecution arising out of a contravention of section 73, 76C or subsection (1) of section 78, the burden of proving that he was entitled to an exemption in terms of this section shall rest on the person claiming such exemption."

19. Section 80 of the principal regulations is amended by the insertion of the following subsection, the existing section becoming subsection (1)—

"(2) A registered dealer in or manufacturer of fishing-nets shall not sell or transfer a fishing-net to any person who is not—

- (a) a registered dealer in or manufacturer of fishing-nets;
- or
- (b) the holder of a permit issued by the Minister in terms of paragraph (a) or (e) of section 83 of the Act; or
- (c) the appropriate authority for any waters."

20. Section 82 of the principal regulations is amended by the repeal of subsection (1) and the substitution of the following subsections—

"(1) An officer may, during normal business hours, require—

- (a) the holder of a professional hunter's licence or any other person who, for reward, has conducted a hunting safari; or
- (b) a breeder, dealer or a registered dealer in or manufacturer of fishing-nets; to produce for his inspection any register which he is required to keep by these regulations, or any trophy, horn, ivory, dust or fishing-net which the officer may require to inspect.

(1a) An officer may, at all reasonable times, require any person who is in possession of any ivory to produce that ivory for inspection by the officer for the purpose of ascertaining if it is registered or marked in accordance with these regulations."

21. The principal regulations are amended by the insertion after section 82 of the following section—

Advertisement of sale or transfer of wild life or trophies

"82A. No person shall publish or display any written advertisement for the sale or transfer of any wild life or trophy, the sale or transfer of which requires a permit or authority in terms of the Act or these regulations, unless he publishes or displays in the advertisement the nature of the permit or authority held by him and its serial number."

22. Section 90 of the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

Fixing of appropriate fees

"90. (1) With the approval of the Minister, the Director may fix the appropriate fees to be paid for—

- (a) entering any area or part of the Parks and Wild Life Estate;
 - (b) doing anything within any area or part of the Parks and Wild Life Estate;
 - (c) using any article or facility provided within any area or part of the Parks and Wild Life Estate;
 - (d) any authority, permit or licence granted or issued in terms of the Act or any regulations made thereunder;
- and may at any time in like manner alter any such appropriate fee.

(2) The Director may, in terms of subsection (1), fix different appropriate fees to be paid by persons resident in Zimbabwe and persons not so resident."

23. Section 91 of the principal regulations is repealed.

24. Section 96 of the principal regulations is amended by the repeal of subsection (1) and the substitution of—

"(1) The appropriate fee for the taking of any measures in terms of section 44 shall be calculated in accordance with the Eighth Schedule."

25. Section 98 of the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations,
1986 (No. 1)

Waiver, reduction and refund of appropriate fees

"98. (1) With the approval of the Secretary for Finance, Economic Planning and Development, the Director may waive or reduce the whole or any part of an appropriate fee in respect of any person or class of persons.

(2) Without derogation from subsection (1), if a person who has paid an appropriate fee to enter any area or part of the Parks and Wild Life Estate is subsequently refused entry to that area or part in terms of section 6, the Director may refund the whole or part of the fee if he considers it just and equitable to do so."

26. The principal regulations are amended by the insertion after section 99 of the following section—

Keeping of certain animals in urban areas

"99A. (1) In this section—

"urban land" means any piece of land less than ten hectares in extent which is situated within—

- (a) a municipal area, town area or local government area; or
- (b) a designated area of a rural council; or
- (c) an area of Communal Land set aside in terms of the Communal Land Act, 1982 (No. 20 of 1982), for the establishment of a township, village, business centre or industrial area.

(2) No person shall possess any problem animal, dangerous animal or primate on any urban land—

- (a) without the written permission of the Director; or
- (b) except in accordance with any terms or conditions imposed by the Director when giving his written permission.

(3) This section shall be additional to and not in substitution for any other enactment relating to the possession of animals on any urban land.

(4) Where any animal referred to in subsection (2) was possessed on any urban land immediately before the date of commencement of the Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 1986 (No. 1), the animal may continue to be kept on that land without the permission of the Director for the period of three months immediately following that date."

27. Section 104 of the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

Offences and penalties

"104. Any person who contravenes any provision of these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable—

- (a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), in respect of an offence referred to in section 26, 27, 30, 32, 33, 37, 40, 60, 68, 87 or 97—
 - (i) on a first conviction, to a fine not exceeding six hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both such fine and such imprisonment;
 - (ii) on a second or subsequent conviction—
 - A. to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or both such fine and such imprisonment; or
 - B. in the case of a continuing offence that has continued for more than fifty days, to a fine of twenty dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five days or to both such fine and such imprisonment for each day during which the offence has continued;
- (b) in respect of any offence involving the unlawful possession of, or trading in, ivory or rhinoceros horn, to the penalties set out in subsection (4a) of section 115 of the Act;
- (c) in respect of any offence involving ivory or rhinoceros horn, other than an offence referred to in paragraph

Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations
1986 (No. 1)

(b), to a fine not exceeding—

(i) three times the value of the ivory or rhinoceros horn concerned; or

(ii) five thousand dollars;

whichever is the greater, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

(d) in respect of any other offence, to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment."

28. The principal regulations are amended by the insertion after section 104 of the following section—

Transitional provisions

"104A. (1) Every professional hunter's licence, learner professional hunter's licence and professional guide's licence which was issued before the date of commencement of the Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 1986 (No. 1), shall, unless earlier cancelled, expire on the 31st December, 1986.

(2) Where, on the date of commencement of the Parks and Wild Life (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 1986 (No. 1), a holder of an ivory manufacturer's licence is in possession of an ivory article exceeding two hundred grams in mass which he had processed, carved, embellished or otherwise manufactured before the date of commencement of those regulations, he may, instead of engraving the article in the manner prescribed in section 76, mark the article in indelible ink with the particulars specified in section 76, in such a manner as will reasonably ensure that the marks cannot be erased.

(3) The provisions of these regulations shall apply to any article marked in terms of subsection (2), and to the marks thereon, as if the article had been engraved in terms of subsection (1) of section 76."

29. The Sixth Schedule to the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

"SIXTH SCHEDULE (Sections 72 and 73)

Notes and conditions (In addition, see Notes 1 and 2 under "Animals Hunted")

3. The total amount of foreign currency paid by the client is the total foreign currency value per individual animal charged to the client plus the cost of a.l overheads and extras. No payment for any services rendered by the professional hunter, other person, or his company may be paid in kind. Any currency, deposited by the client for the cost of processing or shipping his trophies to their destination must be included. Where there is a discrepancy between the total amount of foreign currency paid by the foreign client to the professional hunter, or other person, and the actual amount deposited with a Zimbabwe commercial bank, the professional hunter or other person is required to provide a written explanation for such discrepancy which is to be attached to the original return and NP/CITES Form 2 before presentation to an authorized dealer.
4. This form must be completed by the professional hunter or other person who was in direct control of the hunt in question (see Parks and Wild Life Act, No. 14/75). Registers must be produced to any authorized officer, as defined by law, on demand. The professional hunter or other person is therefore required to ensure that the register is available for inspection within his hunting area during the actual hunting period. In the event of the theft, loss or destruction of a register, the Director of National Parks and Wild Life Management must be notified within seven days of such occurrence.
5. The original return (top copy) is to be submitted to the Director of National Parks and Wild Life Management, P.O. Box 8365, Causeway, within fourteen days following the date of completion of the actual hunt.
6. The duplicate return (second copy), stamped by the appropriate Permits Officer of the Department, is to be attached to the client's export permit (NP/CITES Form 2) and both are to be presented to a Zimbabwe commercial bank when authorization of section 16 of the Form 2 is required. If both documents are not exhibited to an authorized dealer, the export of the trophies will not be permitted. The foreign client should be advised to export all his required trophies in one consignment for this reason.

7. The export of trophies listed in this form may not be exported in terms of a Certificate of sale/Short Export Permit (NP/CITES Form 1) after manufacture.
8. The foreign client and professional hunter, or other person, are required to sign this form immediately upon the completion of the hunt. This is a legal requirement and non-compliance will render the professional hunter, or other person liable to prosecution. For this reason all professional hunters or other persons should ensure that they are in possession of a register whilst the hunt is being conducted.
9. Where part of the hunt is conducted by the holder of a Learner Professional Hunter's Licence, this form must be completed by the holder of a full Professional Hunter's licence (under whose direct control the learner is operating).
10. "Other person" means a person who is not the holder of a professional hunter's licence but who is the appropriate authority of any land upon which a hunting safari is conducted for reward by any person who is not resident in Zimbabwe. It includes the bona fide employee of the appropriate authority.
11. Ensure that all carbon copies are clear and legible.
